Building Blocks: Strengthening Children's Services

In these tough economic times, we often need to make hard decisions regarding books we can purchase and the number and types of programs we can offer. Librarians often find the need to present programs for a wider age range of children. During this workshop, we will talk about mixed-age programming, and books, activities, and storytelling methods that will engage a wide-age range of children. After a brief focus on programming for ages 0-3, the majority of the workshop will focus on books and programs for children preschool age through second grade. The presenter for this workshop is Sue McCleaf Nespeca of Kid Lit Plus Consulting.

Sue McCleaf Nespeca

Sue McCleaf Nespeca of Kid Lit Plus Consulting has over 30 years of experience in library service to children. She is a trainer for ALA's Every Child Ready to Read Project, and has written several books on programming for children, including Picture Books Plus: 100 Extension Activities in Art, Drama, Music, Math and Science.

Sue has spoken at over 100 workshops and conferences in the United States, on topics related to library programming, early literacy, family literacy and children's literature—always to rave reviews!
