Who should attend?

Development professionals, management and executive staff and board members from non-profits and community foundations. Other interested parties are welcome to attend.

About the Session

Whether you are a board member or a staff person who works with a board, you know that a well functioning board that executes its responsibilities with wisdom, initiative and passion is very often the hallmark of excellent organizations. To build such a board is a dream of both staff and board members. Kay Sprinkel Grace, speaker, consultant and author of, "The Ultimate Board Member's Book," will challenge and delight participants with her practical advice, her inspirational stories, and her "how to" strategy for building an ultimate board for your organization. Participants will learn about tapping into board motivation through Kay's unique "AAA" program, and about a myriad of other areas for attaining "ultimate" status including better board meetings, fundraising roles and responsibilities, relationship with the CEO and other areas that determine the quality of the board experience and heighten board performance.

Don't miss this opportunity to fine tune your board.

Renowned speaker, writer and thinker in the field of philanthropy and nonprofit organizational behavior, Kay Sprinkel Grace is the founder and principal of Transforming Philanthropy, LLC. Kay is regarded in America and internationally as one of the leading thinkers in philanthropy.

With a passion for philanthropy and insights based in decades of work with nonprofits as a staff development officer, consultant and volunteer, Kay brings new perspective and freshness to the practice of ethical nonprofit planning, management, donor development and fund raising.

About UCP Central PA

For over half a century, UCP Central PA (UCP) has been meeting the needs of individuals of all ages and all types of disabilities. In 2006, 94% of the people we served had a developmental or acquired disability other than Cerebral Palsy.

UCP provides services and programs for more than 2,500 children and adults with disabilities, and their families each year. We offer both community and center-based programs and services in eleven Central PA counties and operate from 15 facilities: the Capital Area Children's Center, eleven adult day programs, and three group residences. Just as important, UCP offers hope, the hope of a life well-lived and without limits.

About UCP Foundation of Central PA

Established in 2006, the UCP Foundation of Central PA is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit foundation and a Type 2 supporting organization of United Cerebral Palsy of Central Pennsylvania (UCP).

The UCP Foundation of Central PA financially supports and shares UCP's mission of assisting infants, children, youth, and adults, with disabilities, and their families, achieve their goals of development, growth, independence, and full citizenship.

The UCP Foundation of Central PA provides a mechanism for individuals who believe in our mission to invest in our mission, to ensure that UCP continues to provide quality programs and services to those in our community who need them most, today, tomorrow, and well into the future.
