

Speakers

John Houser— John was hired by HSLC in June 2009 to provide consulting assistance for Commonwealth Libraries funded technology projects. In this capacity, he assists Commonwealth Libraries in developing and implementing technology related programs.

Kathy Silks— Kathy is an award winning communications and community relations professional with expertise in relationship, partnership, and program development; public speaking; group facilitation; writing and editing; strategic planning; creative problem solving; board/volunteer management; and team building. She was recently hired by the Pennsylvania Library Association as the PA Forward Project Manager, helping with advocacy efforts for libraries using the five literacies established by PaLA.

Pat Wagner— Pat has worked with Pattern Research, Inc. and its predecessor, the Office for Open Network, since 1977. She is an educator, trainer, writer and consultant, focusing on personnel, management, leadership, marketing, career and strategic planning issues. She has special interests in conflict management, project management, community outreach and future studies.

Most of her current clients work with and for libraries of all kinds, plus library boards, foundations, Friends groups, and national, state and regional library organizations. Pat also works for innovators in universities, schools, nonprofits, local government and professional, business and trade organizations, as well as medical, scientific and research institutions.
